On Friday January 6 at approximately 9:40 a.m. a transient female entered a grocery store on the 300 block of McLellan Drive in South San Francisco, selected three items off the store shelves, and left the store without paying the full amount owed. When confronted outside the store by store personnel, the subject refused to pay any more money or return items. When a store employee attempted to take the items back from her, the subject swung at the employee, attempting to punch her. The store employee was not harmed during the incident.

When being questioned by police shortly thereafter, the subject provided a false name to police officers. The subject was ultimately arrested for strong-arm robbery and providing a false name to police officers. The subject was transported to the County Jail in Redwood City where she is being held on $50,000.00 bail.
