Documentary Film Screening of Painted Nails
Thursday, March 23

Painted Nails is the award-winning film documentary detailing the health and safety concerns of the immigrant Vietnamese women who work in the nail industry. The film tells the behind-the-scenes story of the U.S. government's failure to regulate safe working conditions. You will meet and fall in love with Van Hoang, nail salon owner turned activist, who became the first person to testify before Congress for safe cosmetics in over 30 years.

Where: South San Francisco Municipal Services Building, 33 Arroyo Dr

When: March 23 at 7:00 p.m.

Annual San Bruno Mountain Field Day

Thursday, March 30

This event will highlight the current state of resources on the mountain and tour various habitats where work is being implemented.

Where: Meet at San Bruno Mountain State and County Park's entrance, 555 Guadalupe Canyon Parkway in Brisbane, CA 94005

When: 10:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.

Why: Tour the beautiful and diverse habitats that San Bruno has to offer, see endangered butterflies and the plants that they depend upon. Talk to local experts about the work they are doing and get to know this incredible place in a new way.

Annual Field Day Details:

The annual field day provides an on-the-ground look at the habitat and butterflies that we are actively managing in perpetuity. The event lasts a full day (10a - 3p) and attendees should bring a bagged lunch, snacks, and water. The day will include some moderate hiking and is timed so that attendees will be out in butterfly habitat when they are most likely to be in flight. Be prepared with clothing that is comfortable and will allow layering, as weather on San Bruno in the spring is highly variable and can range from the 80's to the 40's.

We will have a van to help with carpooling to various places on the mountain.

Stand Up for Kids - South SSF Police Department campaign

Donate food at police department

Imagine coming home from school and having nothing to eat. The refrigerator is empty and the cupboards are bare. Kids tell us it feels scary.

Sadly, 1 in 3 local kids may not be getting enough to eat. And that really is scary.

Hunger can take an emotional toll on these kids as they worry about having enough food. They feel bad when their parents skip meals so they can eat. Hungry kids often struggle at school. They want to learn, but it's tough when their stomachs are growling and they can't concentrate.

Every child deserves the chance to have a healthy, productive life, and that starts with nutritious food. Hunger hurts, but it doesn't have to be like this.

What can you do? Donate food in the three food bins located in the South San Francisco Police department, 33 Arroyo Drive, lobby TODAY!

What to donate?

Meals in a can (soup, stew, chili)

Tuna or canned chicken

Peanut butter

Canned foods with pop-top lids

Canned fruit in its own juice or water

Low-sodium canned vegetables

Olive or canola oil

Spices

Low-sugar whole grain cereals
Healthy snacks (granola bars,nuts, dried fruit)

Please avoid items packed in glass. No soda or candy please.*

E-Magazines At the South San Francisco Library!

Main and Grand Avenue libraries

South San Francisco Public Library has recently added Zinio, a service that lets library users borrow electronic magazines to be read on a computer or tablet device. There are plenty of useful reasons to try Zinio. With 159 different magazines to offer, access to Zinio includes more magazines than each individual library subscribes to in print, as well as access to many more back-issues.

The Zinio collection includes top business titles such as The Economist, Entrepreneur Magazine, and Fast Company.

See Something That Needs Our Attention?

There's an App for That!

See something that needs our attention? Let's get things done together, report non-emergency issues with our mobile app, Engage SSF.

Engage SSF makes it easy to report non-emergency issues from a smartphone, tablet or desktop computer. The City tracks these issues and will provide updates as they are acknowledged and resolved.

Please note:

- Issues will be addressed during normal business hours. If this report comes in on a holiday, weekend or after hours, it will be addressed the next business day.

- Engage SSF is not to be used for emergencies. For urgent matters that require immediate attention or a police response, call 9-1-1.
