

City of South San Francisco Community Volunteer Corps President's Volunteer Service Award

The City of South San Francisco thanks you for volunteering and giving back to the community. The City is excited to share a new component in the South San Francisco Community Volunteer Corps! Residents who volunteer with the City, may be eligible to receive a President's Volunteer Service Award.

This esteemed award is signed by President Biden and is a token of appreciation given to qualified residents who have given back to our community. Award eligibility is determined by the number of service hours (minimum 100 hours for adults and 26 hours for kids on an annual basis). If you are interested in receiving this award, please use the Volunteer Sign-in sheet at the end of this packet to track your hours!
