YANovCon (Young Adult Novelist Convention) Saturday, February 3, 11:00 AM - 4:30 PM

New this year, we are excited to open the convention with a Writing Workshop for Teens, which will be led by novelist Lily Meade. Following the workshop, author Ray Stoeve will be joining as our keynote speaker in this free half-day celebration. The day's events include a teen-led Q&A session followed by three different panel discussions on topics related to this year's featured theme: To Be You: Identity in the Age of Censorship.

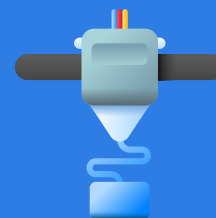

This year's YANovCon proudly features the following award-winning, notable, and new young adult novelists: Julie Abe / Candace Buford / Kara HL Chen / H.E. Edgmon / Maurene Goo / Byron Graves / Jason June / Sean McGinty / Lily Meade / Lio Min / Sonora Reyes / Hannah V. Sawyerr / Ray Stoeve

The day concludes with author book signings, with books available to purchase on site.

Beginners 3D Printing for Kids Wednesday, February 7 and 14 at 2:30 PM 2nd Floor, Discovery Center Makerspace

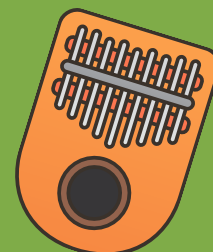

In this class you will learn the basics of 3D printing, how to use 3D modeling software to create your own designs, and 3D print it.

This program is recommended for children ages 8 to 14.

The Kalimba King - NEW TIME! Saturday, February 17 at 11:45 AM

Honor Black History Month with a fun musical performance by the Kalimba King! Learn about the kalimba (African thumb piano) while listening to a variety of African American musical styles such as jazz, blues, oldies, gospel, freedom songs, and pop. Best of all, the Kalimba King will show you how to play the kalimba and let you try one yourself!

Make Your Own Diddley Bow Tuesday, February 20 at 3:30 PM 2nd Floor, Discovery Center Makerspace

Learn how to build a one-string instrument, complete with an electric pickup so you can amplify it. This program is recommended for age 9 and up.

Registration is required via CivicRec (under SSF Library Events)
