OUR FACILITIES

Constructed in 2008, the Joseph A. Fernekes Building is an award-winning facility located in Orange Memorial Park in South San Francisco. Situated between the Orange Pool, sports fields, and playgrounds, the facility serves the community's cultural, recreational, and celebratory needs.

The Fernekes Building features a commercial kitchen, beautiful maple floors, outdoor patio space, a barbecue grill, ample parking, and a 3,600 square-foot multi-use activity room encompassed by windows and grassy open-space.

Capacity: 150 dining.

Need a hand? We provide professional, courteous, and skilled staff to assist you.

Tables and chairs: No need to worry - we set up your room to meet your needs before your event at no additional cost.

Food: Cater in or bring your own food. The Fernekes building features a commercial kitchen to feed a small group or tend to pre-cooked food. Unlike many other locations, we do not require approved caterers.

Parking: Orange Memorial Park has ample and FREE parking for any event.

Accessibility: The parking lot has adequate disabled parking stalls and the facility is accessible to persons of all abilities.
