Enjoy a FREE talk by solo artist, Claudio Talavera-Ballón, who will recount the inspiration for "Somos Tierra Que Anda," (We Are Earth That Walks). The series of 19 oil paintings explores the suffering, strife and hopes of those fleeing poverty and violence in their home countries. The collection highlights migrant struggles, while at the same time offering a renewed sense of hope in humanity. The works offer an invitation for needed conversations to help us move beyond this highly charged conflict and towards a solution. A fine arts painter, muralist, and speaker, Claudio's work has been featured throughout the Bay Area and internationally for over a decade. (www.talavera-ballon.com)
