Armed Robbery Arrest

On November 15th, 2023, at 6:50 PM, the South San Francisco Police Department investigated an armed robbery at a convenience store on the thousand block of Airport Boulevard in South San Francisco. The lone male suspect fled the scene prior to police arrival.

South San Francisco Police detectives worked collaboratively with detectives from the San Mateo Police Department, who were also investigating a similar robbery and were able to identify a suspect vehicle. The FLOCK Safety database was also utilized during the course of the investigation. The suspect was subsequently identified as Marquese Reese of Stockton.

On January 24th, 2024, detectives from the South San Francisco, San Mateo, and Stockton Police Departments executed a search and arrest warrant at Reese's residence in Stockton, California. Reese was placed under arrest for the armed robberies and is currently in custody at the San Joaquin County Jail, awaiting extradition to San Mateo County.

The successful outcome of this investigation demonstrates the continued collaborative efforts between the law enforcement agencies in San Mateo County.
