Commercial Burglary/Stolen Vehicle Suspect Apprehended in the East Bay

On 02/22/2024 at approximately 3:41 PM South San Francisco Police Officers investigated a commercial burglary and vehicle theft of motorcycles at a storage facility on the 100 block of S. Spruce Avenue in South San Francisco.

Detectives collaborated with the East Bay Regional Parks Police Department who identified the suspect as Brian Ray of Bay Point, California. Ray was determined to have been involved in multiple auto burglaries within their jurisdiction.

On 03/27/2024, South San Francisco Police Department detectives assisted East Bay Regional Parks Police Department with the execution of a search warrant at Ray's residence in Bay Point. During the search, detectives recovered one of the stolen motorcycles from the burglary.

Ray was subsequently placed under arrest by East Bay Regional Parks Police detectives on burglary charges. The charges related to South San Francisco's burglary and vehicle theft will be filed with the San Mateo County District Attorney's Office requesting prosecution of Ray. This investigation is ongoing; anyone with information is asked to contact Detective Kerrigan at 650-877-8900 or tips@ssf.net.
